

Seva & Spirituality

This edition highlights inspiring moments from Samanji's travels in Rajasthan, meaningful interactions with monks, and the progress of Samanji Gurukulam. We celebrate the scholarships awarded to deserving students, the enriching Khamta Shibir, and the divine Diksha ceremony at Antali. Additionally, we reflect on the spiritual significance of Shivratri and the impact of our ongoing seva initiatives.

Gratitude for Supporters of Samanji Gurukulam Construction

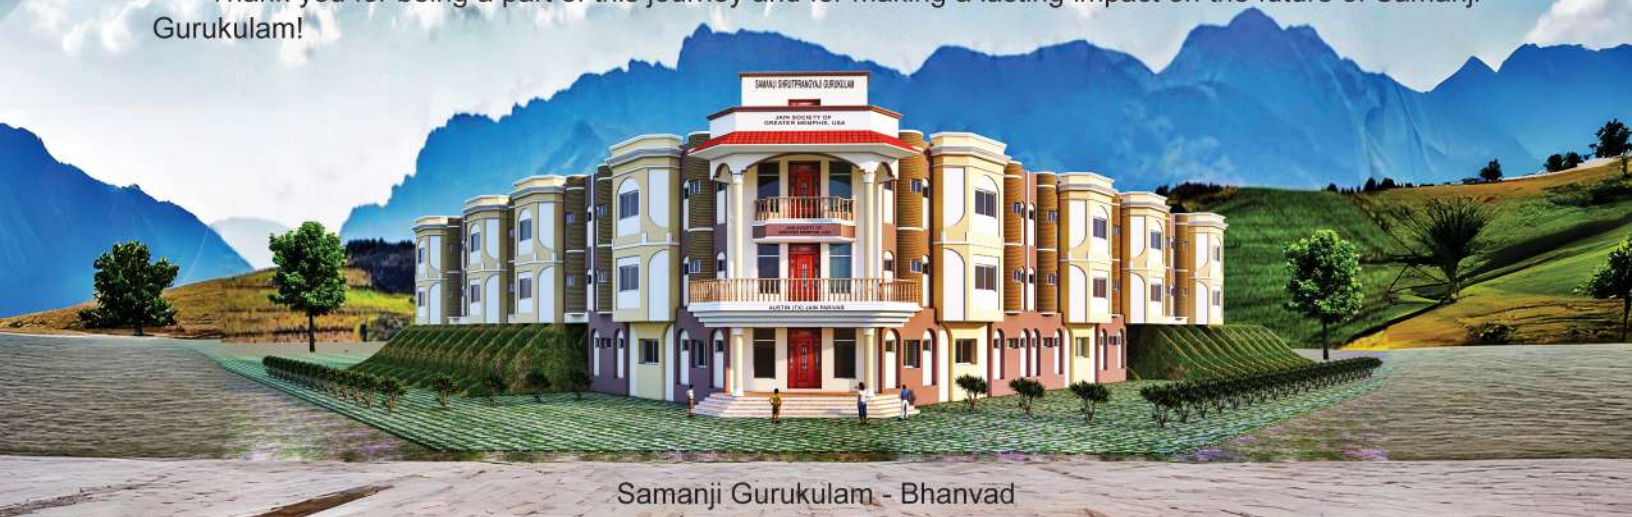

Samanji Gurukulam extends its heartfelt gratitude to all sponsors and donors who generously contributed to the construction of the Gurukulam rooms. Beyond the sponsorships, many individuals played a vital role in supporting this noble cause, proving that a project of this magnitude is only possible through collective efforts and selfless contributions. Type your text

We, at Peace of Mind Foundation and Purusharth School, Bhanvad, sincerely appreciate the unwavering support from our well-wishers in Memphis, TN (USA). Your generosity has been instrumental in bringing this vision to life, ensuring the successful completion of this meaningful project.

Spiritual Homecoming : NRI Devotees Visit Abhavalay, Rajkot

Shashiben and Subhashbhai Jain, residents of Austin, TX, have had a close connection with Samanji since 1996. During their visit to India, they explored Rajkot and Tapovan School in Bhanvad.

Kalpanaben and Bachubhai, both from London, are actively involved in seva at the Navnath Vanik Association, London. Last year, during Samanji's Paryushan Parva, they contributed significantly through their dedicated service.

Minalben and Jayantbhai Shah from Chicago recently visited Abhavalay, Rajkot, where Minalben extended her selfless Seva to the students of Purusharth School, Bhanvad. She guided the girls on effective communication through the principles of Life Management, empowering them with valuable skills for their future.

We deeply appreciate your kindness and dedication to educational empowerment. Your efforts are truly making a difference in shaping young minds.

Thank you for your Seva and support!

Memorable Spiritual & Social Highlights

In February 2025, Samanji had enriching meetings with Pujya Dhiraj Muniji in Rajkot and Pujya Amrit Muniji in Bikaner, Rajasthan, engaging in profound discussions with both.

Additionally, Samanji visited Sambodhi Upvan, Rajasthan, where he celebrated Mahashivratri with the Sambodhi staff, making the occasion even more special. He then traveled to Udaipur, spending valuable time with Jyoti Anand Choraria and Malini Sandip Doshi. The visit included a soulful Satsang and a deeply meditative session, creating a spiritually uplifting experience.

During the Gurukulam Opening Ceremony, Samanji (Peace of Mind Foundation) and Mudubhai (Cabinet Minister, Gujarat) engaged in a meaningful discussion about the program and its impact on education and - New.jpg

A Step Towards a Brighter Future: Review of Samanji Gurukulam

Param puja Samanji, I witnessed the whole program on You tube. It has been beautifully conducted. Hearty congratulations to You, Bhimsibhai and the entire organisation on the successful completion of the Girls hostel dedicated to the people of Bhanvad and surrounding areas. It is your dream, inspiration and guidance which will help mold the current and future of all the girls to become model citizens of Bharat and the whole world. Thank you very much from the bottom of our hearts for letting us participate and make a small contribution towards the wonderful and spiritual upliftment of humanity.

Embracing Renunciation : Four Mumukshus to Take Diksha in Antali

February 28, 2025

In Antali, near Bhilwara, four devoted Mumukshus—Khushi, Nita Daga, Nilesh Daga, and Suryaben—are set to embrace the path of renunciation by taking Diksha on March 2nd.

Saman Shrutpragyaji, extending an invitation from Pujya Pundrikratnasuri Maharaj Saheb, graced the occasion with his enlightening pravachan. He blessed the four Mumukshus, encouraging them to deepen their spiritual journey through meditation, self-introspection, and spiritual study under the guidance of their Gurudev.

Addressing all present, Samanji emphasized the importance of integrating spiritual practices into daily life—beginning the day with meditation and yoga, and ending it with reading and introspection—to progress on the path of inner awakening.
